

Statement

Dear users,

Thank you for your constant support and attention to UBTECH.

In order to protect the rights of our users, standardize information management, and improve our website service capability, our global artificial intelligence education service has moved its official website to the company's domain www.ubtrobot.com. Please note that any website other than this is not the official website of our company. The official download address for educational software tools can be accessed at https://edu.ubtrobot.com/download_center.

This announcement is hereby made.
